

School of Information Sciences

FastTrack MLIS
Online Degree Program

Obtain a Master of Library and Information Science (MLIS) degree in two years from one of the top-ranked programs in North America – without leaving home!

www.ischool.pitt.edu/fasttrack

Accredited by the American Library Association, the University of Pittsburgh's MLIS program is ranked seventh nationally by U.S. News & World Report. Pitt's unique online program uses cohorts (communities of students who travel through the program together) along with user-friendly distance technology to mirror the classroom environment—giving students online access to the same courses and experiences as an on-campus program.

A FastTrack MLIS degree from Pitt prepares students to succeed in various positions, including some of the following:

- Public, academic, or special librarian
- Medical librarian or medical informatics specialist
- School librarian or media specialist
- Archives, preservation, or records management specialist

Application deadlines

Summer term: mid-February

Fall term: mid-June

For more information and specific deadlines, please visit www.ischool.pitt.edu/fasttrack or contact us at ftinfo@sis.pitt.edu or 1-800-672-9435.

University of Pittsburgh

*School of Information Sciences
FastTrack MLIS Program
Information Sciences Building
135 North Bellefield Avenue
Pittsburgh, PA 15260*

NONPROFIT ORG.
U.S. POSTAGE
PAID
PITTSBURGH, PA
PERMIT NO. 511